

A Practical Grammar of the Irish Language (Classic Reprint)

Owen Connellan

Excerpt from A Practical Grammar of the Irish Language I acknowledge with gratitude the kindness of Sir William Betham, who has given me his valuable opinion on many points in this Grammar - an opinion which must now be considered of the greatest weight on any point connected with the Irish Language, since he has rendered so great a service to Celtic Literature by the discovery of the identity of the Irish and Etruscan languages - an identity which I have no hesitation in stating, he has, in my humble judgment, clearly and fully established in his Etruria Celtica.
