

Power and Use (Classic Reprint)

John White Chadwick

Excerpt from Power and Use I am sure that many of my readers, and I trust the most of them, have read The Story of a Short Life. Those who have done so will not, I trust, be sorry to recall its various charm for a few moments, while I indicate its character to the end that I may show what a pathetic and impressive sermon it is upon its silent text, Endure hardness as a good soldier.
