

Practical Bonsai

Paul Lesniewicz, Hideo Kato

Here at last, is an accessible guide to bonsai, written by two acknowledged masters of the ancient art. Moving smoothly from history to practical instructions, Lesniewicz and Kato explain how to select, cultivate, train, and care for bonsai. Twenty-four color photographs and numerous diagrams illustrate each step of the process. The result is a primer that contains everything a beginner needs to know to get started on this fascinating hobby.
